

THE CHRONICLE

CLARKSVILLE, FEB. 12, 1876.

J. S. NEEDLE, J. A. GRANT
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING:
One dollar per square of ten lines of text.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

NO. SQUARES.	1MO	2MO	3MO	6MO	12MO
1 Square	$2.00	$3.50	$5.00	$8.00	$12.00
2 Squares	4.00	7.00	10.00	16.00	24.00
3 Squares	6.00	10.50	15.00	24.00	36.00
4 Squares	8.00	14.00	20.00	32.00	48.00
5 Squares	10.00	17.50	25.00	40.00	60.00
6 Squares	12.00	21.00	30.00	48.00	72.00
7 Squares	14.00	24.50	35.00	56.00	84.00
8 Squares	16.00	28.00	40.00	64.00	96.00
9 Squares	18.00	31.50	45.00	72.00	108.00
10 Squares	20.00	35.00	50.00	80.00	120.00

Announcement of marriages and deaths free—tributes of respect and obituary half price.

Next Monday is St. Valentine's Day.

Several weddings to come off in a short time.

JOHN BILLINGS is to lecture at Knoxville on the 18th inst.

SOME young gentlemen, of this city, regaled us with some delightful singing last Thursday night. Call again, gentlemen.

REV. DR. KERN, of Hopkinsville, delivered an able sermon at the Baptist Church last Sunday morning.

THE Rev. Mr. Estell, of Georgia, has accepted the rectorship of the Episcopal Church at Bowling Green, Ky.

THE recent overflow in the Ohio river has damaged the track of the South-eastern railroad to the extent of $5,000.

THE Columbia Herald and Mail says Rev. A. Mifflin has been doing some able preaching lately. He is able to do it.

REV. MR. COWELL, an Episcopal minister in Covington, Tenn., fell from his buggy, a few days ago, and died in a few minutes.

REV. G. R. BROWDER, one of the best preachers in the Kentucky Conference, preached at the M. E. Church, in this city, last Sunday night.

THE man who said "there is no place like home," ought to visit Clarksville. We think he would feel like moving in and procuring a location for life.

In the Ohio Senate, on the 29th, a bill was introduced to make habitual drunkenness for one year sufficient cause for divorce. That bill ought to pass.

ONE hundred years ago there were no steamships, no railroads, no telegraphs, no sewing machines, no dollar stores, no pull-backs, no no-sour-mash.

SINCE its establishment, the Government has given away 74,062,800 acres of land to soldiers, making half a million of one hundred and sixty acres farms.

WE have received a neatly printed invitation to attend the Mardi Gras Carnival and ball at Memphis, on the 29th inst. We hope to be able to attend.

THE State Grange which met at Jackson Feb. 16, will be composed of ninety-four delegates—one from each county. They will represent 1,102 Granges.

WE advertise an excellent farm for sale in to-day's paper. Any one desiring to purchase would do well to apply to Mr. R. J. Gardner, of this county, and learn full particulars.

AN intelligent, observing gentleman was in the city last week, and remarked that Clarksville was improving rapidly and that the general outlook was very encouraging for her future growth and prosperity.

A. F. SMITH, of Louisville, has severed his connection with the Stranahan Inspection, of New York, and now holds the position of general Western agent for Pollard, Pettus & Co., of New York.

IN Brownsville, Saturday evening, Deputy United States Marshal Boyd was shot and killed by H. M. Clarke, of the Democrat. The tragedy was brought about by a political discussion, originating in jest.

PROF. J. W. RUST, of Bethel Female College, Hopkinsville, Ky., called on us last Monday. He is an accomplished, genial gentleman, and we are glad to learn that his school is in a prosperous condition.

AN alarm of fire, on the 5th inst., caused a panic in a densely crowded audience at Robinson's Opera House, in Cincinnati, and the stampede resulted in the death of twelve persons, and a large number more or less injured.

D. G. DINKMAN, who formerly resided and married in this city, left his wife in Los Angeles, Cal., and eloped with another woman to San Francisco. It is reported that he has no less than three wives. Ding the man, he is a bad egg.

EVERY farmer who desires to keep posted as to the price of tobacco in this city, should subscribe for the CHRONICLE. Our sales commence on Tuesday, and we put our paper to press on Friday, thereby giving the very latest report in regard to prices.

THE Bowling Green Democrat says: We were informed that the father of Mr. L. S. Brough, of this city, who lives in Allen county, being near eighty-seven years of age, can readily ride on horse-back from his home to this city and return on the same day, the round trip making a distance of forty miles.

SOME people try to argue that the money paid to preachers is nothing more than a gift. They believe in a free gospel and a free press, so far as money is concerned. The stated amount of the preacher should be paid as promptly as any other debt incurred, and all church members should consider it their duty to pay it promptly, according to their ability.

To realize a paying profit on cotton-raising it must be produced at a less cost of labor. To this end, one acre must be made to yield as much as two or three, the food for man and beast must be raised at home and the capital required for its culture, must not be borrowed. The increased growth of cotton in Egypt and India is, and will be, sufficient to keep down the price of the cotton raised in the South, and with the present system of culture and labor, the profit, if any, will not justify its production. But with greatly improved methods of labor, and with a plentiful supply of home raised food, cotton will pay a fair profit and its improved staple will give it the highest position in the markets of the world.

To come nearer home, the same may be said of tobacco and wheat. The latter, with its occasional failure and small average yield, is an expensive rather than a profit and will not pay until one acre is made to yield as much as two, now realized from three. Tobacco, too, is falling off in yield per acre and the slower manner in which it is handled makes it, year after year, less able to bear successful competition with chaffy productions of higher latitudes. The want of mature and neat handling are destroying the peculiar characteristics of Clarksville tobacco, whilst the falling off in yield per acre, increases the amount of labor and, proportionally adds to the cost of production. The cry of the tobacco and wheat fields is mature! more mature! And not until they get it will farming pay.

A correspondent of the Knoxville Age thus tersely illustrates the workings of the present system of banking: "I," says he, "own you ten dollars and give you my note for the amount, our law and custom requires that I pay you interest from the time the note is due until it is paid. Now how is the law in relation to our National Banks? Our law permits a man to deposit say $100,000 in the Treasury, for which he receives a certificate which allows him to issue his promise to pay to the amount of $100,000, for which he is allowed to charge you from one to two per cent a month interest. At the same time the Government taxes the holder to pay him six per cent, interest in the Treasury. In this way the debtor is allowed to collect about 25c interest on what he owes, for every dollar bill is nothing more or less than a debt due by the banks to the holder of said bill."

The class-meeting held last Tuesday night, at the residence of Rev. J. H. Gold, was varied in its exercises, and was an interesting, profitable meeting. The baptism of Mr. Gold's three little children, by Rev. R. K. Brown, and one young man coming forward, asking an interest in the prayers of the class, produced a very happy effect upon all present. The meeting was well attended, and we feel satisfied that its influence will bring forth good fruit at no distant day.

Prayer-meeting, next Tuesday night, at the residence of J. A. Grant, to which all, without distinction of sect, are cordially invited.

THE Russellville Herald, of the 3d inst., has the following in regard to the great revival at that place:

"The great revival is still progressing, and great good is being accomplished in all circles of society. One hundred and thirty persons have made profession of religion, and many others are seeking 'the pearl of great price.'"

Rev. J. B. McFerrin, of Nashville, is announced to preach at night. Services every morning and evening during the week.

THE Paducah Sentinel says: Rev. W. M. Pettis, the faithful and eloquent rector of Grace church, in this city, has accepted a call to Newport, Ky., and will leave for his new home on the 21st inst. Both this gentleman and his wife will leave many warm-hearted friends in Paducah. During their five years sojourn here our people have learned to love them for their many Christian graces.

ANY tax-payer who has been assessed for keeping a dog, and has since killed the same, will see how to have that taxed released, from the following by Comptroller Gaines to P. O'Neal, clerk of our County Court:

"Your favor of 1st inst. received. The tax payer can make out before a Magistrate the killing of the dog, which affidavit the Collector can present to the County Court in his application for releases."

MRS. ELIZABETH J. PRITCHETT, wife of John H. Pritchett, who formerly resided in this city, died in Nashville on the 9th inst. Her remains were brought to this city, and the funeral services conducted by Revs. T. A. Hoyte and J. W. Lupton on yesterday. A large number of friends followed her to the City Cemetery, where she now peacefully sleeps awaiting the resurrection morn.

MR. JOSEPH WATTS, of W. C. Watts & Co., Liverpool, is in this city looking after consignments of tobacco, strips and cotton for his house. This firm established their house in 1833, and have received a fair portion of the tobacco and cotton coming from this place to Liverpool. All who have dealt with this firm pronounce it reliable and worthy.

DAUGHTERS OF ZION.—A society, bearing this name, has been started in this city by the colored citizens, the object of same being to "take care of the sick members of said society, burying such members as may die, and for the mutual assistance of the members of said society." It is, indeed, a worthy move.

It is about time for candidates for County offices to announce their names. All who have five dollars to invest that way can have their names inserted in the CHRONICLE by handing over that amount to us.

The able address, delivered last Sunday to the pupils of the Baptist Sunday School, by Prof. J. W. Rust, of Hopkinsville, was well received by both old and young.

JUDGE TYLER being absent, R. W. Humphreys, Esq., is holding Criminal Court this week. The Butler case is set for hearing next Monday.

A GOOD work, saddle and harness horse for sale. Price $75. For particulars enquire at this office.

On Monday last, in company with Messrs. Jno. Young, B. H. Owen, J. G. Joseph and J. D. Hendrick, we left our quiet and pleasant city and embarked on the fleet steamer Silverthorn, commanded by that pleasant and agreeable young officer, Capt. Jno. Throp, with Charlie Fuhrer at the desk. Nothing of a startling nature occurred on our upward trip, and we arrived in Nashville about 12 o'clock that night. After breakfast our traveling companions, who were in attendance at the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias, which convened Tuesday morning, left us, and we spent the day in attending to business and greeting old friends. About dinner time we happened in at the Commercial Hotel, and satiated our appetite at that good hotel which is so well and favorably known to the traveling public, and just here we would say that everybody who travels and do not know John Peacock should get acquainted with him, for he combines all the qualities of a first-class gentleman. We left Nashville Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, and arrived at home about 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The Silverthorn is well officered and keeps as good a table as any boat on our river. She passes up every Monday morning, and all who wish to go to Nashville, will find her a pleasant boat to travel on.

LEW, the correspondent of the Louisville Courier from this city, speaks as follows concerning the entertainment to come off at Franklin Hall on the 17th inst.

"The 'Parable of the Ten Virgins,' as dramatized by Miss Ernie Brown, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Nashville, will be produced on the evening of Thursday, February 17, at Franklin Hall, for the benefit of the Baptist church. This piece is highly recommended by the ladies of the Baptist church, assisted by Prof. Thacher, of Nashville, as musical director, and ten of Nashville's most beautiful ladies, is highly spoken of by the Nashville and Chattanooga papers, where it created quite a sensation when performed. The fair actresses were well known in Clarksville, where she has many warm friends, who will doubtless be anxious to see a hearty welcome to this sacred drama, which is ably written, and adds to her well-merited reputation as a lady of rare culture and superior intellect."

THE United Friends of Temperance of this city are adding some names to their Council almost every meeting. The Champions of the Red Cross have now commenced work and we predict that it will become very popular as there is an insurance degree attached to it, and the proceeds for the families of deceased members. The Enactment meets the first and third Fridays of each month.

MR. D. B. GALLY, one of the officers of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor of Tennessee, is in the city, with a view to establishing a lodge here. Any one feeling an interest in this worthy, growing Order can consult with him at the Franklin House. We commend him to our citizens as a courteous, intelligent gentleman.

SEE advertisement of Mrs. Warfield's new books, just issued by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. Munford Hall, Miriam's Memoirs, Sea and Shore, The Household of Bouverie, Hester Howard's Temptation, and A Double Wedding, are the titles of these books, written by Mrs. Warfield, a popular Southern authoress, who resides in Louisville, Ky.

MARRIED, in this city, on the 8th inst., by Rev. Dr. Fitts, Mr. ICE A. CHASE, of Memphis, and Miss BLANCH HARRISON, daughter of A. B. Harrison, of this city. The happy couple left on the evening train for Memphis, with the best wishes of a host of friends for their future prosperity and happiness.

RECOLLECT that the sacred drama of the "Ten Virgins" will be rendered at Franklin Hall, on Thursday, 17th inst. It should, and we believe will, draw a large crowd. As we have before stated, the proceeds are to be applied for the benefit of the Baptist church in this city.

AFTER the grand jury was empaneled last Monday, Judge Tyler was very decided in his charge in reference to carrying concealed weapons. We hope soon to see this abominable practice abolished. No necessity for it exists in this enlightened age.

MR. PRESLEY DONALDSON died of pneumonia, at Montgomery, Ala., on the 7th inst. He was born in this city, where he resided up to manhood. He was a social, intelligent gentleman, and had relatives and many friends in this county.

EDWIN BOOTH will commence an engagement at Nashville on the 28th inst. He will play Hamlet the first night, Richelieu the second, Othello the third, and Henry the Eighth and Taming of the Shrew the closing night.

A YOUNG darkey was poking fun at an old man the other day, when the old man jumped at him and bit a piece off his ear. Served him right—young folks should be taught in manners from the making of our old ones.

WE are glad to see that Rev. A. D. Sears has sufficiently recovered his health to be out again. He will preach to his congregation at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

PETE BARKSDALE, colored, has opened a fish store near the double ponds on Franklin street, and will keep a supply of fresh fish for the accommodation of the public.

The steamer Silver Thorn will reach here on next Tuesday night, and the Nashville people who are to take part in the performance of the Ten Virgins on Thursday night.

DR. J. W. STEIGER has returned from New York, where he has been attending the lectures. He will resume the practice of medicine in Stewart county.

Go and witness the rendition of the "Ten Virgins" at Franklin Hall, on the 17th inst.

OUR old and much esteemed friend, John A. Irvin, spent several days in this city this week.

BERRY & Co., Booksellers, Nashville, have made an assignment.

CLARKSVILLE ABROAD.

We copy the following article from the South-Western Presbyterian which is published at New Orleans just to show our readers what nice things other people have a chance of reading about us. No one will say that the picture is overdrawn. The article is understood to be from the pen of a very intelligent, old gentleman, who visited our city a few weeks ago for the first time, and whose warm heart was completely won by what he saw here. He writes as follows:

CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE.
DEAR BROTHER SMITH—This is rather an unpretending place of some four to five thousand inhabitants, who, for solid worth and cultivated refinement, will compare favorably with any place of its size on this continent; I doubt if its equal can be found anywhere. I am assured that there is scarcely a man of any standing in this city who is not a member, or closely identified with some evangelical church, (only one lawyer in the town that is not a church member.) The religious element so predominate that any one not identified with it is very little thought of. All seem thrifty and no destitute poor, and none that might be classed very poor. The residences are fitted up with an air of neatness, comfort and good taste, without the least attempt at display. There is a degree of self-contained independence and elevation of character about the people that challenges one's unqualified respect. Drinking saloons are by no means prominent places—I only noticed one, and that seemed very much in the back-ground, as if ashamed to intrude itself on the public notice; hence you see no drunkards and no beggars. It is rare that there are any calls on the poor fund of the churches, and contributions to that fund have often to be appropriated to other objects. Sabbath breaking is not tolerated, and is severely punished. I have not heard a profane oath during the three days I have spent here.

From a young man I judge Clarksville a desirable place to spend the Sabbath, and I found it so. The Sabbath schools begin at 9 o'clock. I made my way to the Presbyterian church in time to witness the opening exercises. The children seemed orderly and reverent. The teachers and their respective classes as they entered. Dr. Shearer, President of the Stewart University, accompanied by the entire faculty and students, arrived at nine o'clock. The students and professors taking seats allotted to them in the school-room. As soon as the opening exercises were over the infant class filed off to their own room, and professors and students to the church, where they are all divided into three classes (a class for each professor). They spend an hour to an hour and a quarter, and when the superintendent is ready to close the day's session, brings in the infant class, the students and professors, who all engage most devoutly in the closing exercises. The students look cheerful and happy. I was told that much attention is paid to vocal music. The students seemed to enjoy the spiritual and understanding also. I have seen college boys summoned early in the morning to the prayer hall, whose looks indicated that they were in the spirit of prayer. I am sure the students of this university relish all the religious exercises prescribed. What a relief and satisfaction it must be to parents who have their sons in such an institution—under such delightful influence and surrounded by such an atmosphere! The President of a bank superintends the Sabbath school, and the manager of another leads the choir; both men of fifty or over. These highly favored students, and contrast their situation and forecast their future with the students of those German universities—I have seen them at Bonn and at Heidelberg, and they are not inferior to them. The students look cheerful and happy. I was told that much attention is paid to vocal music. The students seemed to enjoy the spiritual and understanding also. I have seen college boys summoned early in the morning to the prayer hall, whose looks indicated that they were in the spirit of prayer. I am sure the students of this university relish all the religious exercises prescribed. What a relief and satisfaction it must be to parents who have their sons in such an institution—under such delightful influence and surrounded by such an atmosphere! The President of a bank superintends the Sabbath school, and the manager of another leads the choir; both men of fifty or over. These highly favored students, and contrast their situation and forecast their future with the students of those German universities—I have seen them at Bonn and at Heidelberg, and they are not inferior to them.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

ALL persons indebted to the firm of Blanton & Rankin, are requested to call on me at once at Byer's Drug Store and settle their accounts, or else they will, in a few days, find their accounts in the hands of an officer.
Feb. 10-11. J. L. BLANTON.

BILLIARDS.
A first-class Billiard Room just opened over Louis Michel's Saloon. Tables latest style, and everything complete. Satisfaction guaranteed.
Feb. 5, 76-4. WILL & JOH.

1876
SPRING TIME COMING.
We are just in receipt of a large and beautiful stock of

Window Shades,
together with Patent fixtures, Rollers, brackets, and hangings generally. Also a beautiful stock of Picture frames. Moulding of various sizes for making frames, cords and tassels, including large Wire Cord for Portraits and Mirrors.

Our new stock of

Wall Paper
will be on in a few days, including all the late and elegant Spring Styles for 1876.

Please call and examine our stock and we promise to give entire satisfaction.

Jno. E. Courts & Son.
Jan. 29, 1876-3m.

Lard Oil, Lubricating and Machine Oils, at greatly reduced prices.

OWEN & MOORE.

SEED OATS at T. P. Burke's. Early Rose Potatoes. Russett Potatoes. Tobacco Hags, $2.35—both heads. Milburn Wagon.

Excelsior Reapers and Mowers. Plows, Plow Flows. Bran, Hay, Corn. City Mills Flour. Spring Wagons, Corn Shellers. Corn Cobs, Corn Dows.

Jan. 22, 1876-4m.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.

In this county, on the 10th inst., by Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. H. A. CARMAN and Mrs. M. A. CARMAN.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Clarksville, on the 9th inst., by Rev. J. D. Hendrick, Mr. J. B. Harrison, of Memphis, and Mrs. M. A. DANIEL, daughter of J. B. Harrison.

MARRIED.